

PART-TIME

Level 6

Online

Certificate in Communication

Overview:

This certificate course aims to equip the learner with the knowledge, skills and competence in the principles and practice of effective oral and written communications in a variety of environments.

This will include the competences to speak and write clearly and fluently for college-level learning, the requirements of varied work contexts, and appropriate demonstration of digital competence.

On completion of this course, learners should be able to:

Recognise the role of communication in human interaction in society.

Identify a variety of forms of communication, and explain their suitability for different audiences in a variety of social contexts.

Discuss the foundational concepts and practices involved in communication including written, verbal, and visual communication.

Discuss the nature of communication in a digital society including the role of digital tools and social media in communication.

Demonstrate their communication skills and identify effective approaches to enhancing such skills.
